

Pastor's Job Description

Primary Function

To provide kingdom leadership to the members of the church enabling them to focus on the Great Commission, and equipping them to carry out the five functions of the of the New Testament church: evangelism, discipleship, ministry, fellowship, and worship.

Responsibility

- Leading – the pastor will lead and develop leadership for the equipping of the congregation to fulfill the Great Commission and accomplish the purpose statement of the church.
- Administering – the pastor will provide direction and oversight to assure that the administrative responsibilities for the church are fulfilled.
- Ministering – the pastor will use his spiritual gifts to edify and buildup the local body of believers. He will provide appropriate pastoral care to members of the church and the community. He will lead by example in the area of personal evangelism. He will equip the leadership and members of the church to do the same.

Expectations

The pastor is expected to be a servant leader. He is expected to live an exemplary life modeling the call, character, and competencies becoming a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ. He will demonstrate a servant spirit as a growing disciple of Jesus Christ.